

Legislative Link Update Week of April 29 – May 3, 2013

Today marks the 110th day of the legislative session. Of the 1,147 bills that have been introduced, so far 219 have been passed by both chambers of the Legislature and of those 186 have been officially signed into law by the Governor and 11 have been vetoed.

With very little work left to do on regular bills, the Legislature has now begun a three day work week. The Legislature will only be meeting on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday as they did this week until leadership decides to have members return for a full week. The two remaining issues left to be completed are the state budget and the Governor's proposal to expand Medicaid.

There has still been no public discussion of the FY 14 state budget or the Governor's proposed Medicaid expansion. There is a growing sense among legislators that because of the wide divide between the Governor's office and the legislature on the two remaining issues, that the session could continue for quite a while.

Progress on bills was particularly slow this week as the majority of bills that will be moving forward have now been considered by both chambers and forwarded to the Governor. While the Legislature may not have been busy the Governor was, signing 61 bills into law since last week. Although not posted immediately, the list of bills that the Governor has signed are officially posted here: <http://azleg.gov/SessionLaws.asp>. It is our experience that this list lags several days as the final bills are marked up and "Chaptered" after the Governor signs them.

The only neighborhood bill on the tracking list to receive any action this past week was SB 1103 related to charter school zoning which the Governor signed into law on 5/2.

The attached list includes a summary of introduced bills that may be of interest to you. Bills that received action during the week are highlighted in the attachment. This week, I've also highlighted the eight bills on our tracking list that have already been signed by the Governor, so you can quickly see which bills have made it through the process and passed that final hurdle.

There are no bills currently scheduled for a committee hearing during the upcoming week:

Thank you again for your participation.

H2657: TRANSACTION PRIVILEGE TAX CHANGES

Numerous changes related to transaction privilege taxes (TPT) and affiliated excise taxes. Requirements for the sourcing of transactions are established, effective January 1, 2014. Retail sales of tangible personal property must be sourced to the seller's business location if the seller receives the order at a business location in Arizona, or to the purchaser's location in Arizona if the seller receives the order at a business location outside of Arizona. For the purposes of municipal excise taxes, the jurisdiction with the right to tax a sale of tangible personal property is the municipality where the order is received (defined), or where the stock is located from which the property is taken, or where the transfer of title or possession of the property occurred. The gross receipts from leasing or renting tangible personal property must be sourced to the lessor's business location in Arizona or to the lessee's address if the lessor does not have a business location in Arizona. The list of exemptions from the retail TPT classification is modified to remove sales to nonresidents for use outside the state if the vendor ships or delivers the property out of the state, and sales of property that is shipped or delivered directly to a destination outside the U.S. for use in a foreign country. Effective January 1, 2015, the prime contracting and owner builder sales transaction privilege tax classifications are eliminated and replaced with a manufactured building dealer classification. The sale of tangible personal property to a "contractor" (defined), regardless of whether it will be incorporated into a building or structure, is considered to be a retail sale and is subject to retail TPT unless otherwise exempt. Prime contracting TPT distributions to political subdivisions are deleted. Tangible personal property sold to a manufactured building dealer is only exempt from the retail TPT classification only if the property is to be incorporated or fabricated into a manufactured building. Numerous items are removed from the list of deductions from the tax base for the manufactured building dealer classification (formerly prime contracting). Once the distribution of revenues for municipal or county infrastructure improvements related to manufacturing facilities has reached the maximum amount, 40 percent of the remaining TPT revenues from the retail classification are designated as the distribution base for state shared revenues, increased from 20 percent. The Department of Revenue is required, rather than permitted, to collect and administer TPT and use taxes imposed by municipalities and to enter into intergovernmental agreements with municipalities to provide a uniform method of administration, collection, audit and licensing of TPT and affiliated excise taxes. Municipalities are prohibited from employing auditors and entering into contracts with a party other than the state for the collection, administration and processing of TPT or affiliated taxes. Municipalities are prohibited from levying a TPT or use tax on construction contracting, owner builder sales or speculative building. Municipalities are no longer prohibited from levying a TPT or use tax on sales of motor vehicles to nonresidents for use outside the state or on any amount attributable to development fees incurred in relation to construction. Effective January 1, 2014, if a county or special taxing district levies one or more excise taxes on the effective date of this legislation, and if approved by the voters at a county-wide or district-wide election, a county or district is authorized to levy an excise tax on the storage, use or consumption in the county of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer, as a percentage of the sales price. The tax must be at a rate equal to the sum of the rates of all the excise taxes levied on the effective date. The Department of Revenue is required to collect the tax. Session law provides that this legislation does not apply to or affect the tax liability of contracts entered into before January 1, 2015 by a person engaged in business under the prime contracting classification or the construction contracting, owner builder or speculative builder classification of the model city tax code, or to the sale of tangible personal property to a contractor for incorporation into a project that was subject to a tax deduction.
